

A marathon of art events in downtown Kingston, Jan 27th – Feb 12th

Exhibitions throughout artignite at the Agnes Etherington Art Centre 262 University Ave.

Students & children FREE
Thursdays FREE for all

Canadian Historical : Portrait of Eliza
Contemporary : Discontinued Colours
European Historical : Diamonds In the Rough :
Discoveries in the Bader Collection
Historical : The Constantine Collection of Northern Indigenous Art
African Sculpture : Collecting Visions :
Selections from the Justin and Elisabeth Lang Collection Contemporary Works on Paper, Historical Decorative Arts : Adornment Contemporary
Photography : Bernard Clark : Tattoo Portraits

Exhibition throughout artignite at the Kingston Glass Studio & Gallery 56 Queen St. FREE Colour and Warmth in the Cold by Pauline Conley, Mischka Hunter and Mariel Waddell

Exhibitions throughout artignite at the Union Gallery 101 Union St. in Stauffer Library FREE Main Space : Stories We Tell Ourselves by Heather Smith and Mackenzie Browning Project Room : Civic, new paintings by Janghan Jong

Exhibition throughout artignite at the The Artel 205 Sydenham St. FREE Group Show : It's Like That But Not

Exhibition throughout artignite at the Kingston School of Art 647a Princess St. FREE Sweet-Art : Juried Art Display

MORE EVENTS

Film: Reelout 13th Queer Film
+ Video Festival
More than 80 works screened over 11 days.
This year, with the theme of exploring the aesthetic sensibility of 'camp' in queer film and video.
The Screening Room, 120 Princess St.
until Sun 2/5 From $9

Theatre : What Mildred Did!
Presented by Domino Theatre
This new comedy by John Green stars a housekeeper who helps a playwright write
"the world's greatest murder mystery."
The New Domino Theatre, 52 Church St.
until Sat 2/4 8 pm $18

Classical Music : Melos Music Society presents The Italian Connection : Gabrieli to Vivaldi

Includes two guest artists, Kingston based guitarists Jeff Hanlon and Chad Yacobucci, playing Vivaldi's Concerto in G for Two Guitars.
St. George's Cathedral, King St. East at Johnson
Fri 1/27 7:30 pm $25/$20/$12

Choral Music : Open Voices Live, A Random Act of Culture

This special concert features special guests
Tannis Slimmon, The Gertrudes, and Mojah.
The audience can sing along and be part of recording a live CD.

Cooke's - Portsmouth United Church,
200 Norman Rogers Drive
Fri 1/27 & Sat 1/28 7:30 pm From $5

Classical Music : Queen's School of Music Cello and Piano Recital

Wolf Tormann, cellist, and Cynthia Tormann, pianist, present a varied program highlighted by major sonatas composed by Alfred Schnittke and Sergei Rachmaninoff.
Chalmers United Church, 212 Barrie St.
Fri 1/27 8 pm From $8

The graphic features the text "Light it up" in a large, teal, cursive font, arched across the top. Below the text, a series of teal and white hands are raised, holding lit candles. The background is dark with white speckles, suggesting a night sky or a starry field. The overall theme is one of community and celebration.

Jan 27th – Feb 12th 2012
For complete listings, locations and gallery hours please visit artignite.ca
f t /artignite

artignite

Opening Reception : Colour and Warmth in the Cold Exhibit

Featured artist Pauline Conley's vibrant creations and playful abstracts will bring back snapshots from your childhood.
Kingston Glass Studio & Gallery, 56 Queen St.
Sat 1/28 1-3 pm FREE

Staged Readings : Herman Voaden National Playwriting Competition

Eighth Biennial playwriting competition dedicated to encouraging the writing of Canadian drama.
Theological Hall, 85 Stuart St. on Queen's Campus
Sat 1/28 2.30 & 7 pm FREE

Exhibit : New works by Jane Colden, Pauline Conley and Lori Richards

Wine & Cheese artist opening, with featured artists in attendance.
Gallery Raymond, 334 Princess St.
Sat 1/28 3 – 5 pm FREE

Art : Reception

For current exhibitions, with featured artists in attendance.
Union Gallery, 101 Union St. in Stauffer Library
Sat 1/28 6 – 8 pm FREE

Classical Music : Marie-Josée Lord in Recital

Soprano Marie-Josée Lord is proud to present her recital program, including selections by Gordon Lightfoot, Verdi, Lama, Bizet, Joni Mitchell and more.
Grand Theatre, 218 Princess St.
Sat 1/28 7:30 pm $42/$37

Craft : Design Your Own Paperweight Workshop

Participants select their colours and designs, then watch as a glassblower pours molten glass onto their creation to form a paperweight, theirs to keep.
Kingston Glass Studio & Gallery, 56 Queen St.
Sun 1/29 10 am - 3 pm $35

Speaker : Textile Conservation and the Museum Public by Caterina Florio

Florio will discuss the relationship between textile conservation practice and the perceptions of visitors who view such objects.
Agnes Etherington Art Centre, 262 University Ave.
Sun 1/29 2 pm FREE

Dance : Oasis Dance Studio presents World Dance Gala

The only studio in Kingston dedicated to the art of Middle Eastern Dance. Performers include amateur and professional dancers from several dance studios and cultural organizations in Kingston.
Grand Theatre, 218 Princess St.
Sun 1/29 8 pm $26

Film : Mini Cuban Film Festival presented by Kingston Latino Community Association

Three Cuban films, Lisanka, Ticket to Paradise and Domino Effect make up this mini-festival for both English and Spanish speakers.

Kingston Frontenac Public Library, Central Branch, 130 Johnson St.

Tue 1/31 - Tue 2/7 6:30 pm $3/$5

Film : Pecha Kucha presented by the Kingston Arts Council

Pecha Kucha originated in Tokyo as an event for young artists to meet, network, and show their work in public. Artists show 20 of their images, for 20 seconds each.
Queen's Inn Pub, 125 Brock St.
Tue 1/31 7:30 pm By Donation

Speaker : Dr. Ariella Azoulay 'Displaying Revolutions' presented by Corridor Culture Collective

Dr Azoulay will discuss how citizenship takes place, who appears and who does not, and why? And how events such as the recent revolutions in the Middle East re-imagine citizenship for all.
Kingston Frontenac Public Library, Central Branch, 130 Johnson St.
Wed 2/1 7 pm FREE

Film : Focus Film Festival

This guerrilla filmmaking competition asks students to create a 5-minute film in 72 hours. The results are screened and winners chosen at this event.
Agnes Etherington Art Centre, 262 University Ave.
Wed 2/1 8:30 pm FREE

Theatre : The Grandkid by John Lazarus presented by Theatre Kingston

This two-character comedy is about a widowed professor in his 60s who finds his routine interrupted by the arrival of a new roommate: his 19-year-old granddaughter starting her freshman year at university.
Grand Theatre, 218 Princess St.
Thur 2/2 - Sat 2/18 7:30 pm $24/$17

Theatre : Queen's School of Drama presents Vogt B!

A series of student productions – produced, directed, acted and written by students and professionals.
Carruthers Hall, 62 Fifth Field Company Lane on Queen's Campus
Thur 2/2 - Sat 2/4 6 & 8:30 pm $4

Classical Music : Queen's Conservatory of Music String Master Class

QCM Director and Violinist Karma Tomm presents a public master class for string players (violinists, violists and cellists) of all ages. Players must registers, audience welcome.
Harrison LeCaine Hall, 39 Bader Lane on Queen's Campus
Fri 2/3 4 pm FREE

Reception & Performance :

It's Like That But Not

Opening reception, with food and live performances by those participants whose work best suits that form of presentation, rather than gallery display.
The Artel, 205 Sydenham St.
Fri 2/3 7 pm FREE

Jazz : Ravi Coltrane Quartet

Regarded as a powerfully mature musician, saxophonist and a composer. His longtime quartet has established itself as one of the most consistently thrilling and acclaimed working groups in jazz today.
Grand Theatre, 218 Princess St.
Fri 2/3 7:30 pm $42/$37

Exhibit : Organization of Kingston Women Artists Annual Juried Exhibition

Presenting a very diverse collection of high quality works from some of Kingston's best artists.
Kingston Frontenac Public Library, Central Branch, 130 Johnson St.
Sat 2/4 to Wed 2/29 FREE

Craft: For the Love of Craft Show & Sale presented by Made 4 You

Show and sale of juried items from local and regional artists and artisans, with a children's area and food.
Memorial Hall in City Hall, 216 Ontario St.
Sat 2/4 10am - 4pm

Reception & Exhibit : Organization of Kingston Women Artists

Opening reception, with featured artists in attendance.
Kingston Frontenac Public Library, Central Branch, 130 Johnson St.
Sat 2/4 2-4 pm FREE

Singing Contest : Queen's Chinese Student Association presents SingCon 14

After auditions, 10 contestants are chosen to perform at SingCon, showcasing the different musical talents of Queen's students. Contestants can choose to sing in English or Chinese.
Theological Hall, 85 Stuart St. on Queen's Campus
Sat 2/4 6:30 pm From $10

Speaker : Natalka Husar, joint presentation with Organization of Kingston Women Artists

Husar will take the audience on a time-traveling trip between her upbringing in New Jersey, her studio in Toronto and her search for inspiration as she "stalks her muse through contemporary Ukraine".
Agnes Etherington Art Centre, 262 University Ave.
Sun 2/5 2 pm FREE

Jan 27th – Feb 12th 2012

For complete listings, locations and gallery hours please visit artignite.ca

f t /artignite

artignite

Classical Music : Kingston Symphony presents Canada Meets Finland

Performing Sibelius's stirring Finlandia along with his beautiful first symphony, as well as the world premiere of Kingston's own Michel Szczesniak's piano concerto, Felt Resonance.
Grand Theatre, 218 Princess St.
Sun 2/5 2:30 pm $10-$49

Dance: La La La Human Steps

An incredibly complex ballet performed by virtuoso dancers, accompanied by a live quartet, evoking two tragic love stories awash in the melodies of the operatic scores by Purcell and Gluck.
Grand Theatre, 218 Princess St.
Tue 2/7 7:30 pm $42/$37

Speaker : Artist Talks

Artists with works in the main space and project room will discuss their work.
Union Gallery, 101 Union St. in Stauffer Library
Wed 2/8 2:30pm FREE

Speaker : Alicia Boutilier, Curator of Canadian Historical Art on Portrait of Eliza

Boutilier's 'Art Matters' talk will reveal more comprehensive understanding of Sawyer's artistic process and favourite subject, his wife Eliza.
Agnes Etherington Art Centre, 262 University Ave.
Thur 2/9 12:15 pm FREE

Storytelling : Bookworm: A One-Man Show about Reading by Corin Raymond

Raymond tells the story of a father and son, of growing up with a love of books and libraries, and of meeting the Minotaur on a highway outside Wawa.
Kingston Frontenac Public Library, Central Branch, 130 Johnson St.
Thurs 2/9 7pm & Fri 2/10 2 pm FREE

Classical Music & Dancing : Queen's School of Music 'A Night in Vienna'

Grant Hall is transformed into a Viennese Ball - with Austrian music, song and dance, featuring the Queen's Symphony Orchestra, vocal students, faculty members, and spectacular ballroom dancers.
Grant Hall, 43 University Ave on Queen's Campus
Fri 2/10 & Sat 2/11 7:30 pm From $20

Exhibition : Intimate Theatre - Contemporary Works

Internal dialogues of fantasy and anxiety are explored in Shary Boyle's small-scale sculpture 'Interruption' and works on paper by Boyle, Eleanor Bond, Sheila Butler, Marcel Dzama, Ron Gii and Sophie Jodoin.
Agnes Etherington Art Centre, 262 University Ave.
Opens Saturday 2/11 $5/$3/FREE

A Cappella Choir : The Caledonias Showcase Concert

All female a cappella choir showcases their repertoire including original compositions.
The Common Ground, Queen's Centre, 284 Earl St.
Sat 2/11 2 pm FREE

Pop Music : 'Working Man's Dead' Live presented by Skeleton Park Music Festival

Kingston musicians will perform music from The Grateful Dead's classic album, Working Man's Dead. All ages welcome.
Kingston Yacht Club, 1 Maitland St.
Sat 2/11 2:30 pm By Donation

Art Draw : Cezanne's Closet Fundraiser Gala

Features visual art by student artists in the fine art program at Queen's University and professional artists. Tickets include admittance for two and guarantees one piece of artwork per ticket.
Union Gallery, 101 Union St. in Stauffer Library
Sat 2/11 7-10 pm $150 Admit Two

Gospel Blues : Sweet Honey in the Rock

Internationally renowned a cappella ensemble, committed to creating music from African American traditions - be it jazz, blues, reggae, gospel hymns, Hip Hop or ancient lullabies.
Grand Theatre, 218 Princess St.
Sat 2/11 7:30 pm $42/$37

Dance : World Beat Workshop

Ebon Gage, Artistic Director of the Kingston School of Dance, leads a lively world beat workshop for all ages. No dance experience required. Suitable for children 6+ with adult accompaniment.
Agnes Etherington Art Centre, 262 University Ave.
Sun 2/12 2 pm FREE

Kids Theatre : Jason and The Argonauts

With only two actors and a cast of action figures, this performance challenges traditional institutions of theatre and storytelling, all with a laugh.
Grand Theatre, 218 Princess St.
Sun 2/12 2:30 pm $25/$12.50

Exhibit : Sweet-Art Juried Art Display & Valentine's Party

Bring your sweetheart! Each $100 ticket entitles a couple to a piece of original art to take home at the end of the party.
Kingston School of Art, 647a Princess St.
Sun 2/12 7:30 pm $100 Admit Two

Jan 27th – Feb 12th 2012

For complete listings, locations and gallery hours please visit artignite.ca

f t /artignite

artignite